

Joplin Junior College, Joplin, Missouri, April 24, 1953

Edited by Joanne Owen

A Review of Some 1952-1953 Highlights at J. J. C.

Student Cabinet Meets During Summer to Plan Activities for Orientation

Slight Increase in Enrollment Marks Beginning of Junior College's Fifteenth Year

School Really Commences

After the mixer (scenes below) the new term gets underway. Candidates for high offices campaign and students elect Student Senate President Lloyd Reis, shown at the right congratulating other top leaders.

Yearbook Sponsors Announce Selection Of Pat Croley, Paulina Tuggle, Marilyn Allen To Pilot the 1953 'Crossroads' Staff

A Chemistry Instructor Plays Boogie - Woogie At First Party For All Students

Everyone Finds Something to Do In an Extracurricular Activity

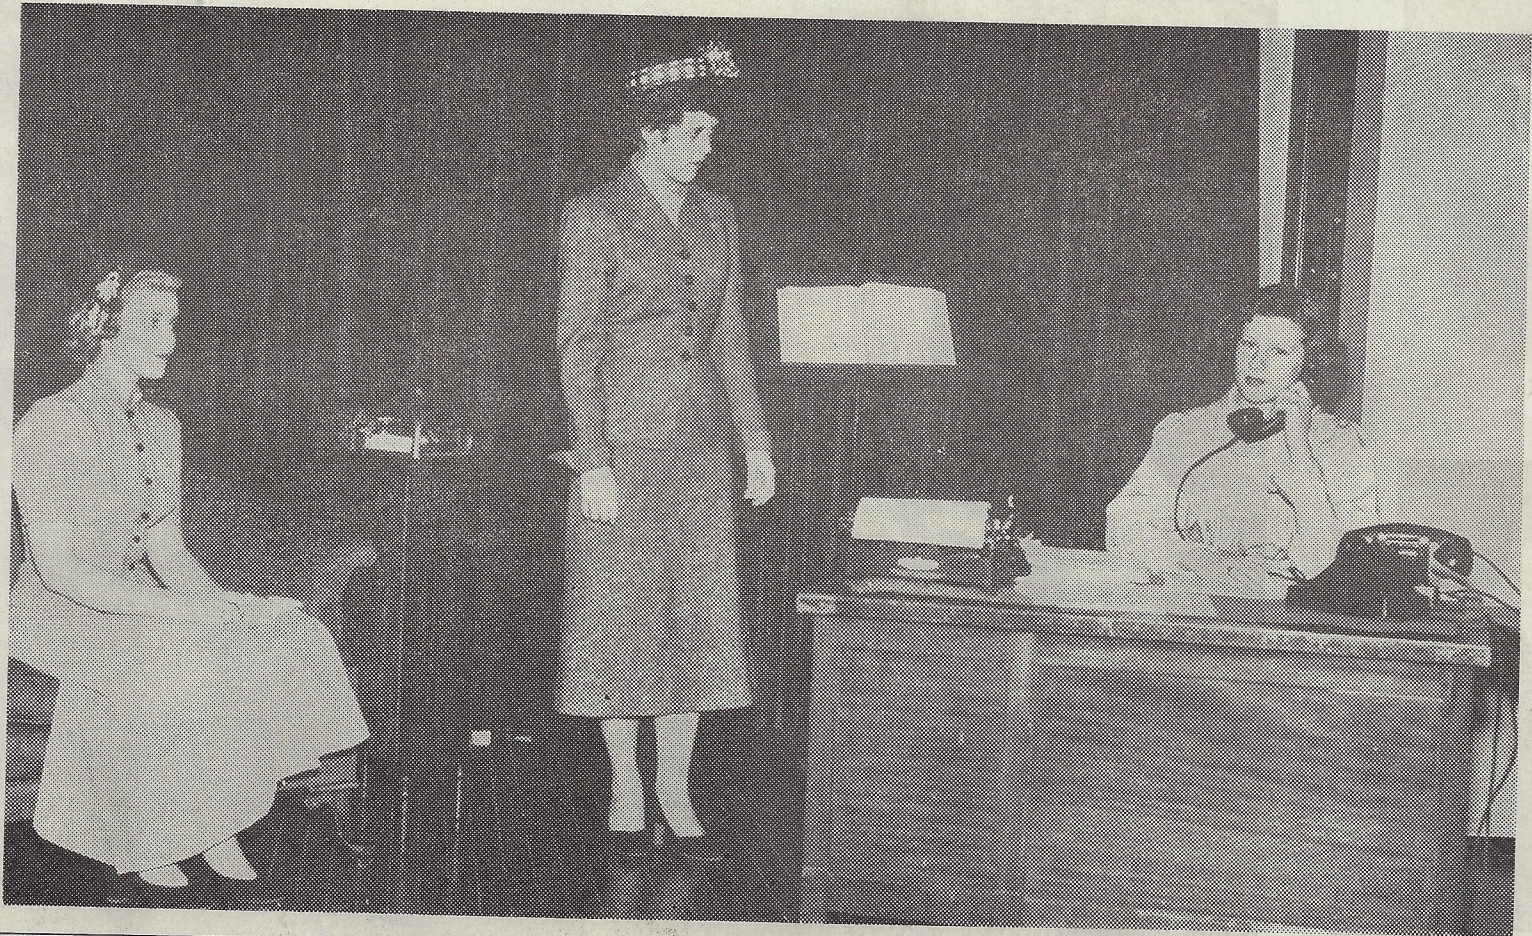

Whether the student's special interests lie in the field of music, art, or dramatics, he soon finds that he has an opportunity to use his talents. Music lovers who do not belong to the Triple Trio, or give recitals, as did Barbara and Merel Young (center left) may belong to the Joplin Junior College Civic Symphony Orchestra or the Choir.

Faculty
and
Students
Paint
For Enjoyment

College Players Give Special Programs in Addition to Major Productions

Mary Brookshire

Amy Hobart

Mary
Amy
Diana
Suzie
Attendants

Extra!

Extra!

Extra!

Homecoming Edition

Joan Holman

1952 Homecoming Queen

Big Parade This Afternoon

1:15

Floats

Bands

Pretty Girls

Let's Beat O. M. A., Lions

Diana Martin

Suzie Stinson

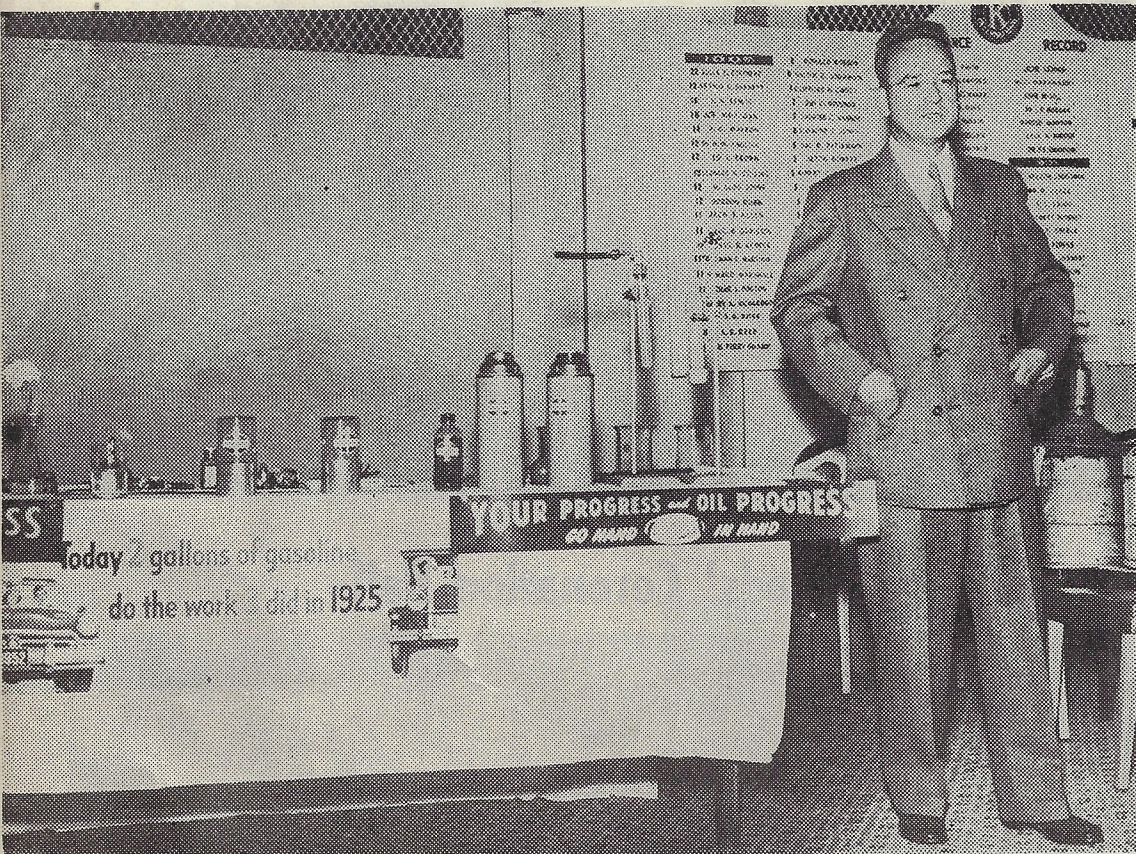

Some CHART Staffers
Pause to Talk Over
A Forthcoming Issue
Of the College Paper

Business Manager Paul Wetzels (right) reports the number of inches that Editorials Nancy Forkum, Ruth Murray, Jack Eisen, and Sanford Dorbin must reserve for advertising.

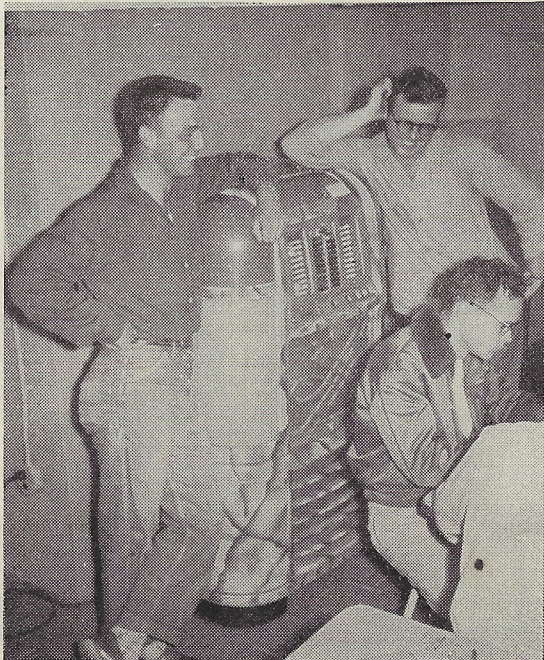

Assembly Committee Brings Interesting Lectures

Memorial to the Late Dr. Stevick
To Be Placed in College Library
Following Presentation of Bible
In Assembly by Former Student
Who Served as Chairman
For the Purchase

Boys Relax
In Lion's Den
Between Classes

Phi Theta Kappa Initiates 13 Bringing Scholastic Fraternity Membership to Largest Number in History of J. J. C. Chapter

College Again Sponsors

'Dollars for Sense' Quiz Show

In Twelve District High Schools

Awarding Scholarships to Winners

Patty Gray Reigns Over Annual 'Crossroads' Coronation Ball

From his Lair in the Main Hall, Jo Juco, Symbolizing the Spirit of Joplin Junior College, Presides Over Sports Events and All Other School Activities

The 1952 Cagers
Share the Missouri
Public Junior College
Conference Championship
With Hannibal-LaGrange

Golf Is Only One
Of the Popular Sports
For Women. Other
Physical Education
Courses Include
Swimming, Tennis,
Bowling and Social Dancing

Joplin Junior College Alumni Officers Meeting in the Library Look Up During One of Their Sessions Spent in Preparing Programs and Announcements For the Two Major Student-Alumni Events, Homecoming and the Spring Banquet

Mr. Elroy Thomas, Vice-President of the Alumni Association, Mrs. Sally Shedelblower, Board Member, Mrs. Alice Buzzard, Secretary-Treasurer, and Mr. Jack Parker, President.

The Familiar Landmark at Fourth Street and Byers Avenue Still Serves Youth

(Grateful acknowledgment is made to the Joplin Globe for many engravings.)